Article from Bill Englert –

There are some people who wonder if GOD is real?

Here is a little anecdote I would like to share:

A man was sitting on a hillside. The man whispered "GOD, speak to me."

A meadowlark sang. But the man did not hear.

Then the man yelled "GOD, speak to me!"

And thunder rolled across the sky. But the man did not listen.

The man looked around and said "GOD, if you are here let me see you."

And the stars shined more brightly. But the man did not notice.

And the man stood up and shouted "GOD, show me a miracle."

Somewhere a child was born. But the man did not know.

Finally, the man spoke out in despair, "Touch me GOD and let me know you are here."

GOD reached down and touched the man. But the man brushed the butterfly from his cheek and walked on.

So remember, don't miss out on GOD's blessings because they are not packaged the way you expect. Take the time to see the symbols and notice the blessings around you.

In the name of GOD.

Lions Club Project – Diane Reed

The Marstellers and I are members of the Denbigh Lions Club. We normally do our annual Denbigh Day Festival and Parade but have not been able to for the last two years due to the pandemic.

Since we still need to serve 100's of individuals who need glasses and hearing aids, we have decided to make and sell bird houses and bird feeders. All material is recycled except for the cute little decorations. The single picture is the one I bought and the others are ones we currently have or can make. They can also be specially ordered if you have color preferences. Just another note, we are a small club and most of our members are in their 70's and 80's, even have two in their 90's.

Please contact Diane Reed at 757-570-8110 or by email: dreed@cnu.edu

Cybersecurity Awareness Month – DON'T BE LURED BY PHISHING

Cybersecurity Awareness Month continues with tips on how to prevent phishing attacks. Phishing may be “one of the oldest tricks in the book,” but it is still incredibly effective. Although it may be hard to spot when you are in the midst of a phishing attempt, by exercising caution and deploying a few fundamentals, individuals and organizations can reduce the chances of falling victim to a phishing attack. Here are a few quick tips for dealing with phishing threats to help you:

Know the Red Flags

Phishers are masters of making their content and interactions appealing. From content design to language, it can be difficult to discern whether content is genuine or a potential threat, which is why it is so important to know the red flags - Awkward and unusual formatting, overly explicit call outs to click a hyperlink or open an attachment, and subject lines that create a sense of urgency are all hallmarks that the content you received should be handled with caution.

Verify the Source

Phishing content comes in a variety of ways however, many phishes will try to impersonate someone you may already know - such as a colleague, service provider or friend - as a way to trick you into believing their malicious content is actually trustworthy. Don't fall for it. If you sense any red flags that something may be out of place or unusual, reach out directly to the individual to confirm whether the content is authentic and safe. If not, break-off communication immediately and flag the incident through the proper channels.

Be Aware of Vishing and Other Phishing Offshoots

As awareness has spread about phishing, bad actors have begun to diversify their phishing efforts beyond traditional email. For example, voice phishing (vishing) has become a primary alternative for bad actors looking to gain sensitive information from unsuspecting individuals. Similar to conventional phishing, vishing is done by individuals posing as a legitimate organization, such as a healthcare provider or insurer, and asking for sensitive information. Simply put, it is important to be wary of any sort of communication that asks for personal information whether it be via email, phone or chat, especially if the communication is unexpected. If anything seems suspicious, end the interaction immediately and contact the company.

Hebrews 5:1-10 – Reader: Bill Englert

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

“You are my Son,

today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever,

according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

The Prayers of the People – Form III – Led by: Juana Jones

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others, especially Calvin, Charles, Sharon and Larry M., Mary Ann, Deania, Teresa, Steve, Patrick B., Davidsinia, Christina M., Vilma, Dean, Ross, Roberta, Sally, Ronda, Al, Lillian, Daniel S., Carlos, Robyn, Conrad, Michael G., Carlyle, , Richard, Susie, Vincent, Linell, Henrietta, Christopher, Kent S., Lacy, Robin, Adolfo, Roy, Gale, Shenneth, Dashella, Robert L., Linda, David and Liz M., William and Mary T., Terrance and Dawn T., and for those who serve in our armed forces, especially Eduardo, Joe, Jason, Ashley, Jayson, Charles and Anthony.

The Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So, Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."
